In any event, before the Initial Pretrial Conference counsel shall consider and discuss any special issues or problems which may arise (or have arisen) during discovery; whether a protective order is necessary and the contents of any such order; whether early settlement (of any or all claims) should be pursued; whether and when mediation should be conducted and, if they can agree, whom the Court should appoint as mediator; the likely length of trial, should this case not be settled; and any other special needs the litigation of these claims may present.

If the parties wish to consent at this time, or at any time during the pendency of this case, counsel should file the required form. Additional consent forms (“Consent To Proceed Before A Magistrate Judge”) are available from the Office of the Clerk of Court or from chambers of the undersigned.

NOW THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED:

1. The Initial Pretrial Conference shall be held in the chambers of the undersigned (Room 238, U.S. Courthouse, 401 West Trade Street, Charlotte, North Carolina), on Friday, September 28, 2007, at 11:00 a.m.
